

Please Help ID Robbery Suspect

The man depicted in the hooded sweatshirts in the photos below is suspected in 12 business robberies in Minneapolis, St. Paul and Edina, including the Wells Fargo Bank, 4721 Chicago Ave. S. on Thursday, March 6, shortly before 2 p.m.

He also is the suspect in the robbery of Walgreen's at 4547 Hiawatha Ave. S. on Jan. 12 at approximately 01:23 a.m.

The same suspect was involved in two Super America robberies in Minneapolis and St Paul, along with several other store robberies in the metro area.

He is described as a white male, 5'07"-5'11". In one of the robberies (shown below) he was wearing blue jeans and a green hooded sweatshirt with a Guinness beer logo on the front. In another incident (also shown below) he was wearing a dark baseball cap and a hooded sweatshirt.

The party has been armed with a handgun in some of the robberies.
